

OPEN GOVERNMENT & DIGITAL TRANSFORMATION FOR SOCIAL ACCOUNTABILITY: AN CO-CREATION ENGAGEMENT

Maryati Abdullah, National Coordinator/Director of PWYP Indonesia
Envoy, Open Government Partnership (OGP)

Prepared for being panelist in the session of 19th Annual Conference on Requirement for Localization of Smart Infrastructure in Arab countries for Achieving Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs).

UNSCWA – ARADO | Marrakech, 17-18 October 2019

The world's 4th most populous country (over 261 million poples)

Hundreds of distinct native ethnic and linguistic groups

INDONESIA

The world's Largest Islands
(More than 17.000)

High level of biodiversity areas & abundant of Natural Resources (Oil, Natural Gas, Mineral, Coal, & Various Agriculture product)

Indonesia's Economy is the world's 16th largest by nominal GDP and 7th by GDP at PPP member of Several Multilateral organisation, and a founding member of many multi-laterall initiative, inlcuding Open Government Partnership (OGP)

Open Government Partnership

Since its founding in 2011, OGP has grown to 79 country and 20 local members. With more than thousands commitment from all the member.

Indonesia's NAPs was spread in wide strategic areas of public services delivery, budget transparency, extractive industries and natural resources,, village funds, anti-corruption and beneficial ownership disclosure, citizen complain handling mechanism, and many others,

Where the digital transformation such us E-GOVERNMENT are developed as part of the priorities to improve the public services delivery.

Objectives

- Public Financial System to better and integrating development planning and budgeting

Mechanism

- inter-ministerial/body/unit of administrative government on planning and budgeting mechanism
- Public can access the budget allocation and spending

Impact / Results

- Effective and Efficient planning based on unified budgeting, performance based budgeting, and mid-term development framework.
- Public can monitor the budget spending, and using the finding to improve the level of transparency and accountability of public financial budgeting such as open data budget through portal APBN (FITRA)
- <https://www.worldbank.org/en/news/feature/2016/02/22/indonesia-new-system-to-improve-financial-spending-and->

Objectives

- Public complain handling system on public services

Mechanism

- Friendly future, using social media
- Public could tracking the report and development

Impact / Results

- Effective and efficient of citizen complain handling mechanism,
- Public can monitor the progress of the report
- Provide collaborative ways to engage and co-create with civil society and service provider in specific sector
- Enabler for Multi-stakeholder dialogue and improving the public service delivery (YAPPIKA)
- www.lapor.go.id

Objectives

- Online system to monitor the sales and payment of royalty and non-tax revenue from mineral and coal sectors

Mechanism

- Company can access and report the payment
- Using as coordination and integrated system to monitor the sales and revenue payment
- Government and public can monitor the compliant of companies

Impact / Results

- Improving the revenue target achievement
- More effective public monitoring and reporting on extractive industries revenue compliant
- www.epnbpminerba.esdm.go.id

SPAN [VIDEO!]

OPEN GOVERNMENT & DIGITAL TRANSFORMATION FOR SOCIAL ACCOUNTABILITY

- Digital Transformation is a key of communication. Beyond its, is about facilitating citizen aspiration by the responsive and accountable government.
- Enabling environment (on right to access of information, freedom of expression and participation, freedom of press, and other aspect) is the fundamental aspect that need to be created and enabled.
- The open government is the way to achieve better governance, where transparency accountability and public participation and innovation is the basic principle
- Open government and digital transformation which created in the good ecosystem of government-citizen relations will developing and improving social accountability to achieve the main goals of the country, of the nations.

 Syukran